December 2024

Balinese Full Moon 15 December

Temples across Bali will hold traditional ceremonies to honor the full moon (Purnama), which is deeply significant in Balinese Hinduism. These rituals include offerings, dances, and Gamelan music, offering a glimpse into the island's spiritual life

Denpasar Festival 22 - 25 December

A highlight of Bali's year-end celebrations, this festival takes place in the island's capital city. It features a diverse lineup of cultural parades, art exhibitions, traditional dances, and culinary experiences showcasing local delicacies. The festival is a grand showcase of Balinese art, culture, and community spirit, ending the year on a festive note.

Pandawa Festival 25 December – 1 January

This event takes place at the scenic Pandawa Beach and includes live music, cultural parades, local food bazaars and various performances that celebrate both modern and traditional Balinese culture. It's a wonderful blend of beachside relaxation and vibrant entertainment.

NYE at Sanur Beach 31 December

Bali is gearing up for a memorable New Year's Eve, with numerous parties and celebrations along the island's coastline. Sanur's relaxed atmosphere is perfect for those looking to welcome the New Year with a more tranquil, family-friendly celebration "feet in the sand", complete with a beautiful fireworks display over the ocean.
